

Sue Machiela (9022 Tyler St., Zeeland 49464) is halfway through treatments. Because they are in the thick of it, she is asking for some reprieve on calls/texts. July 8th will be her last day of chemo and radiation. They're keeping us updated on Sue's CaringBridge page. Thank you, everyone, for your prayers and support!

Loie Berens (9060 Lakeview Ct., Zeeland 49464) spent some time in the hospital with an infection in her knee. She is home now and doing better.

Paul VanWyk seems to be declining quickly. Prayers for Bonnie and family are appreciated.

Sandy Mathy's nephew, Josh, was moved up to Status 1 level for the transplants, which means that he is in the top group for this region of who is offered transplant organs. Praise God! Continued prayers for emotional health and strength are appreciated as he has to wait in ICU until the transplants happen.

Thank you, friends, for your thoughts and prayers. My biopsy showed calcification, so nothing to worry about. Praise God!

Thank you to the congregation and pastors for your prayers, cards, and condolences for the loss of our grandmother and great-grandmother, Goldie Driesenga. Her lifetime of faith was a great example, and she will be missed.
