ASPIRATIONAL BUDGET ALLOCATION

A Budget Built Around Mission and Redeployment

Way Church operates on an aspirational budget reviewed annually by our Board of Trustees. These percentages reflect our founding priorities. We reserve the right to adjust proportions in different ministry seasons while remaining committed to the spirit of each category.

FINANCIAL STANDARDS

How We Handle What You Trust Us With

INDEPENDENT REVIEW

Our financials are managed by The Parable Group, a third-party accounting firm, providing an extra layer of professional diligence entirely separate from church leadership.

MISSIONS AND REDEPLOYMENT FIRST

Ten percent of our total budget is committed before the first operational dollar is spent, directed to local benevolence, global partnerships, and future church planting.

BOARD OVERSIGHT

A dedicated Board of Trustees, separate from pastoral leadership, approves all major expenditures. No single person controls financial decisions.

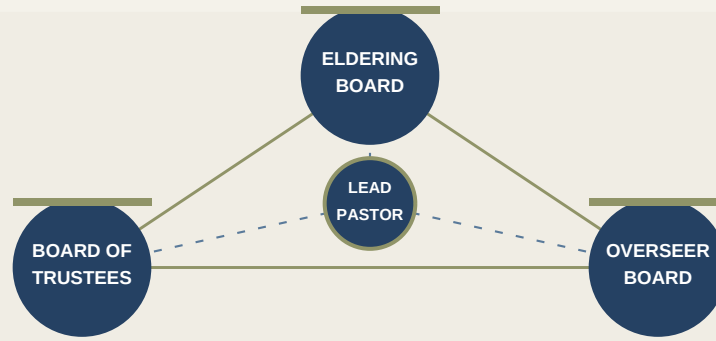

AUTONOMOUS AND ACCOUNTABLE

Way Church is not accountable to a denominational hierarchy. We are an autonomous congregation. Our Overseer Board provides trusted spiritual and practical coaching and counsel.

GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

Three Boards. One Mission. No Single Point of Control.

Way Church operates under the Triangle, a three-board governance structure that keeps spiritual leadership, financial oversight, and missional accountability in distinct, healthy tension. The Lead Pastor sits at the center, leading the staff team to execute the ministry vision. Way Church is an autonomous congregation, independent of any denominational hierarchy.
