MISSIONS

The Head, Heart, and Hands of Living on Mission for Jesus

CLASS INFORMATION

Class Title: Missions

Class Subtitle: The Head, Heart, and Hands of Living on Mission for Jesus

Class Description: Jesus has called his disciples into lives on mission for Him! Come and join this class as we learn how to personally live on mission in our everyday lives by reminding ourselves of the message of the Gospel, our momentous task of sharing the Gospel with the lost, and the methods of integrating the Gospel into our communities. We will explore how our head, heart, and hands work together in obedience to his mission both locally and globally.

Teacher Biography: Pastor Brad here! I'm a follower of Christ, a husband, a dad, a friend and a pastor who desires to see all of the flock of God passionately live on mission both locally & globally. My wife Karen and I have four children - Brody, Bryce, Taysum, and Wesley.

Class Resources: Each participant will receive Let the Nations Be Glad by John Piper.

CLASS OUTLINE

Week 1 - Sunday, January 8

Title: The Message & the Messengers

Description: There is only ONE true gospel and we are the messengers to proclaim it. We'll cover the gospel message and how God intends us to share it.

Week 2 - Sunday, January 15

Title: Motives Matter

Description: The gospel propels us to share the message and live a gospel centered life.

Week 3 - Sunday, January 22

Title: Open Doors & A Clear Message

Description: How can we build relationships with non-believers? What role does prayer and a clear message play in our mission?

Week 4 - Sunday, January 29

Title: Gospel Clarity & Gospel Community

Description: We'll learn how to clearly articulate the gospel message and how that message should shape a community on mission.
