The Story of Joseph

“When God Opens the Door”

Genesis 41

Two full years later, Pharaoh dreamed that he was standing on the bank of the Nile River.<sup>2</sup> In his dream he saw seven fat, healthy cows come up out of the river and begin grazing in the marsh grass.<sup>3</sup> Then he saw seven more cows come up behind them from the Nile, but these were scrawny and thin. These cows stood beside the fat cows on the riverbank.<sup>4</sup> Then the scrawny, thin cows ate the seven healthy, fat cows! At this point in the dream, Pharaoh woke up.<sup>5</sup> But he fell asleep again and had a second dream. This time he saw seven heads of grain, plump and beautiful, growing on a single stalk.<sup>6</sup> Then seven more heads of grain appeared, but these were shriveled and withered by the east wind.<sup>7</sup> And these thin heads swallowed up the seven plump, well-formed heads! Then Pharaoh woke up again and realized it was a dream.<sup>8</sup> The next morning Pharaoh was very disturbed by the dreams. So he called for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. When Pharaoh told them his dreams, not one of them could tell him what they meant.<sup>9</sup> Finally, the king’s chief cup-bearer spoke up. “Today I have been reminded of my failure,” he told Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:1-9 (NLT)

When God is silent

God may be working behind the scenes

God may already have told you what to do

God may be revealing unconfessed sin

God may be inviting you into a deeper relationship
