“Seeing God, Seeking Ourselves”

Isaiah 6:1-8

It was in the year King Uzziah died that I saw the Lord. He was sitting on a lofty throne, and the train of his robe filled the Temple. <sup>2</sup> Attending him were mighty seraphim, each having six wings. With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. <sup>3</sup> They were calling out to each other, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Heaven’s Armies!

The whole earth is filled with his glory!”

<sup>4</sup> Their voices shook the Temple to its foundations, and the entire building was filled with smoke. <sup>5</sup> Then I said, “It’s all over! I am doomed, for I am a sinful man. I have filthy lips, and I live among a people with filthy lips. Yet I have seen the King, the Lord of Heaven’s Armies.” <sup>6</sup> Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a burning coal he had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. <sup>7</sup> He touched my lips with it and said, “See, this coal has touched your lips. Now your guilt is removed, and your sins are forgiven.” <sup>8</sup> Then I heard the Lord asking, “Whom should I send as a messenger to this people? Who will go for us?” I said, “Here I am. Send me.”

Isaiah 6:1-8 (NLT)

Worship is our wholehearted response to who God is and what He has done

Four Movements of Worship

- Awareness - God reveals his holiness
- Conviction – We recognize our sin
- Forgiveness – God removes our guilt
- Mission – God sends us into the world

Notes

Worship is the way our hearts and lives respond to God because of his gracious forgiveness. We express worship outwardly through music and singing, but also through prayer, gratitude, obedience, generosity, and the daily choices that put God first. True worship isn’t confined to a moment in a service. It’s a whole life oriented around God’s worth.
