Navigating Faith in Real Life

2.15.26

“Real Faith Seeks Wisdom”

James 3:13-18

¹³ If you are wise and understand God's ways, prove it by living an honorable life, doing good works with the humility that comes from wisdom. ¹⁴ But if you are bitterly jealous and there is selfish ambition in your heart, don't cover up the truth with boasting and lying. ¹⁵ For jealousy and selfishness are not God's kind of wisdom. Such things are earthly, unspiritual, and demonic. ¹⁶ For wherever there is jealousy and selfish ambition, there you will find disorder and evil of every kind. ¹⁷ But the wisdom from above is first of all pure. It is also peace loving, gentle at all times, and willing to yield to others. It is full of mercy and the fruit of good deeds. It shows no favoritism and is always sincere. ¹⁸ And those who are peacemakers will plant seeds of peace and reap a harvest of righteousness. James 3:13-18 (NLT)

The starting point for real faith is wisdom

Biblical wisdom is seeing life through God's perspective until your desires begin to change

Moving wisdom from your head to your heart

- Practice examining the motivation behind your actions
- Practice being teachable before you practice being right
- Practice making mercy your first response
- Practice keeping the peace over proving your point
