“A Season of Transplanting”

Psalm 1

Notes

Psalm 1

Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take

or sit in the company of mockers,
but whose delight is in the law of the Lord,
and who meditates on his law day and night.
That person is like a tree planted by streams of water,
which yields its fruit in season
and whose leaf does not wither—
whatever they do prospers.

Not so the wicked!

They are like chaff
that the wind blows away.
Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment,
nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
For the Lord watches over the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked leads to destruction.

Key Takeaways

- God plants us by streams of water, so we can grow in every season.
- Whatever our season of life, our purpose is to pursue the way of righteousness.
- Righteousness is found in a trusting relationship with Jesus.
