

ACTS 6:8-15 DISCERN, STAND, & SHINE

9-6-26 | DOUG REID

Key Scripture: 'Opposition arose, however, from members of the Synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called)—Jews of Cyrene and Alexandria as well as the provinces of Cilicia and Asia—who began to argue with Stephen. But they could not stand up against the wisdom the Spirit gave him as he spoke.' - Acts 6:9-10

CITY GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Stephen was already full of grace and power before the opposition ever showed up — that's what carried him through it. What's something that consistently fills you up before you need it?
2. Stephen didn't fight back — he let God do the defending. Where in your life right now might you be tempted to handle something yourself instead of handing it to God?
3. Be honest: has there been a moment lately where you felt more drained than full, and it showed — in your patience, your mood, how you treated people around you?
4. Stephen kept his eyes up instead of locked on the accusations against him. What's something — a song, a verse, a person — that helps you look up instead of spiraling when you feel targeted or discouraged?
5. How does staying "full" spiritually actually show up in your regular week? Who's one person in your life this week who could use you showing up full — with patience, encouragement, or just your presence?
