CITY GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Where is the line in your own life — the room, the relationship, the topic — where you quietly keep Jesus out because speaking up would cost you? Name it to the group.
2. The apostles rejoiced because they were "counted worthy." When has a hard thing in your life turned out, looking back, to have been an honor rather than only a wound?
3. Be honest: do you tend to pray more for God to REMOVE your obstacles or to USE them? What would change this week if you prayed the second prayer?
4. Peter denied Jesus once when the pressure came, then stood and preached under the whip a few chapters later. What made the difference — and how does that same thing grow in us?
5. The angel sent them back to the exact place they were arrested. Where might God be sending you back into something you'd rather escape — not to endure it, but to speak into it?
6. Who in your life has stopped answering, stopped trying, stopped believing? What is one specific, physical step you could take this week to carry the name of Jesus toward them?
