ANYONE, ANYTIME, AND ANYWAY

10-4-26 | DOUG REID

Key Scripture: “Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, ‘Go south to the road—the desert road—that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.’ So he started out...” Acts 8:26-27

1. Anyone — No One Is Too Far Gone for Jesus

2. Any Way — God Knows the Road to Every Heart

3. Anytime — Changed in a Moment, Made Over a Lifetime

Take It Home This Week

1. The Name on the Dash: write down the one name you've given up on. Pray one sentence a day by name, and make one Ananias move before Sunday.
2. Tell Your Road: at dinner, tell how you met Jesus. Where was I headed? Who did God send? What's different now?
3. Be Somebody's Barnabas: pick one newer believer and make four contacts in thirty days. Walk with them; don't fix them.

NEW GUESTS: We want to know you! Fill out a Connection Card and bring it to the Connection Point under the sails for a gift!

CITY GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Tell your road in two minutes: Where were you headed, who did God send, and what's different now?
2. Saul wasn't the church's biggest problem. He was God's next project. Whose story of change has built your faith that no one is too far gone for Jesus?
3. Ananias was scared and argued, but he went anyway, and his first word was "Brother." Who has been an Ananias for you? How have you been an Ananias for someone else?
4. Hidden years are not wasted years. You don't get the wave without the wait. Where do you see God patiently building something in you right now, even if it feels slow?
5. Barnabas walked Saul in when everyone else was still afraid of him. Where in your everyday life, like work, school, your neighborhood or your family, could you be the one who walks someone in?
6. Pick one Take It Home step for this week: The Name on the Dash, Tell Your Road, or Be Somebody's Barnabas. Which one are you choosing, and how can this group cheer you on?
