WHOM DO YOU SERVE?

By Rev. Dr. Marcus R. Tinajero

Faithful of Saint Jude today, in this Sunday's passage of Luke 16:1-13 challenges and provokes us to consider how they use their resources, not just for earthly gain, but for eternal security. Though the manager's methods are dishonest, Jesus praises his cleverness and foresight, urging his followers to show similar urgency and strategic thinking in their spiritual lives. The passage culminates with the stark reminder that you cannot serve both God and money. In your spiritual journey, do you have a sense of urgency for Jesus or is your urgency placed in other things?
