Book Recommendation

The Life of Christi by Ven. Fulton Sheen

📖🌟 The Life of Christ by Fulton Sheen is a timeless spiritual masterpiece that brings the Gospels to life with depth, beauty, and clarity. Archbishop Sheen's reflections invite readers to walk with Jesus from Bethlehem to Calvary, uncovering the profound love and sacrifice at the heart of our faith. This book is a powerful companion for anyone seeking to grow closer to Christ and understand the mystery of His life in a richer, more personal way.

THE LORD KNOCKS, WILL YOU BE READY?

By Rev. Mr. Robert Grizzell

In Luke 12:32-48, Jesus speaks words of both tenderness and urgency: “Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the Kingdom.” The Lord reminds us that God’s promise is not one of fear but of inheritance—He longs to give us His very Kingdom. Yet, in the same breath, Christ calls us to vigilance, urging us to live ready, as servants who await their master’s return. This tension between gift and responsibility reflects the beauty of discipleship: God’s grace is freely given, but our response requires faithfulness, watchfulness, and love put into action.

This Gospel invites us to consider how we live each day in light of eternity. To be ready does not mean living anxiously but living with purpose—treating each moment as an offering to God. Whether in prayer, in our families, or in acts of mercy, Christ asks us to make our hearts attentive to Him so that when He comes, we may be found faithful. Our readiness is not about perfection, but about love—love that shines in small daily acts, proving that our treasure is truly in heaven.

Reflection Questions:

1. If Jesus returned today, what part of your life would show Him your faithfulness and love?
2. How can you live each day more intentionally as though you are preparing to receive the Kingdom God desires to give you?
