HOLY FAMILY IS OUR FAMILY

By Rev. Robert Grizzell

The Feast of the Holy Family invites us to look at Jesus, Mary, and Joseph not as an idealized or perfect household, but as a real family who trusted God in the midst of uncertainty. They faced fear, displacement, and misunderstanding, yet they remained faithful to God and to one another. In the quiet routines of daily life—work, prayer, obedience, and love—God was forming the heart of the Savior. The Holy Family reminds us that holiness is most often lived out not in extraordinary moments, but in ordinary faithfulness.

Mary and Joseph teach us what it means to listen to God even when His plans disrupt our own. Joseph protects and provides, even when the path ahead is unclear. Mary ponders God's work in her heart, trusting that He is faithful to His promises. Jesus, though the Son of God, learns obedience, compassion, and love within the shelter of family life. In their example, we see that family is meant to be a place where faith is nurtured, forgiveness is practiced, and love is strengthened through sacrifice.

On this feast day, the Holy Family calls each of us—whether married, single, young, or old—to examine how our homes and relationships reflect God's presence. Our families may not be perfect, but when we invite God into them, they can become places of healing, growth, and grace. As a parish family at St. Jude the Apostle Polish National Catholic Church, we are reminded that we too are called to support one another, walking together in faith and love.

Reflection Questions:

- How can I invite God more intentionally into my family life or closest relationships?
- What example from the Holy Family challenges me to grow in faith, patience, or love this week?

Faith grows stronger when it's shared! ⭐ This week, we invite every member of our parish family to bring a friend, neighbor, or loved one to church. There's someone in your life who may be searching for hope, peace, or a sense of belonging—and your simple invitation could make all the difference.

At St. Jude the Apostle Polish National Catholic Church, we believe that God's love is for everyone. Our doors are open, our hearts are ready, and there's a place for all at the table of the Lord.
