WHAT IS QUINQUAGESIMA SUNDAY?

By Rev. Robert Grizzell

As the Church arrives at Quinquagesima Sunday, standing at the threshold of Lent, the readings invite us to examine the focus of our hearts. The prophet Isaiah assures us that God's care for us is deeper than even a mother's love for her child—faithful, tender, and unwavering. In the Gospel, Jesus challenges us to trust in that divine providence, urging us not to be consumed by anxiety over material needs. This is not a call to irresponsibility, but to freedom: freedom from fear, freedom from worry, and freedom to place God first above all else.

St. Paul, in his letter to the Corinthians, reminds us that we are stewards of God's mysteries. Our worth is not measured by human judgment or worldly success, but by our faithfulness to the One who calls us. As Lent approaches, Quinquagesima Sunday asks us to take an honest look at what truly governs our lives. Are we serving God with undivided hearts, or are we distracted by possessions, status, and constant worry? Jesus' words are clear: "You cannot serve both God and mammon." Where our treasure is, there our heart will be also.

This Sunday prepares us for the spiritual discipline of Lent by inviting us to trust more deeply in God's care and to seek first the Kingdom of God. When we loosen our grip on anxiety and self-reliance, we make room for grace. In doing so, we rediscover peace—not because our circumstances are perfect, but because our hearts are anchored in God's faithful love.

Reflection Questions:

1. What worries or attachments most distract me from trusting fully in God's providence?
2. As I prepare for Lent, how can I more intentionally seek God's Kingdom in my daily life?

GREETINGS FROM OUR PASTOR: REV. DR. MARCUS R. TINAJERO

Greetings and hello, we're so blessed to have you with us today, whether you're a regular attendee or a first-time visitor, St. Jude The Apostle is here to serve your faith needs. As a father, educator, laborer, professional and yes an ordained Catholic priest, we are here for everyone from all walks of life, language, and culture. I invite you to our Sunday Masses either 8am en Español or 1 pm in English.

If it is your first time text or call me at number listed below for a taco and some coffee. St. Jude the Apostle, pray for us! Fr. Marcus R. Tinajero, PhD

Bring a Friend to Church!

Faith grows stronger when it's shared! This week, we invite every member of our parish family to bring a friend, neighbor, or loved one to church. There's someone in your life who may be searching for hope, peace, or a sense of belonging—and your simple invitation could make all the difference. At St. Jude the Apostle Polish National Catholic Church, we believe that God's love is for everyone. Our doors are open, our hearts are ready, and there's a place for all at the table of the Lord. So don't come alone—invite someone to encounter God's presence, feel His love, and join our growing family of faith. Together, we can share the joy of Christ and make His light shine even brighter in our community. "Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven." — Matthew 5:16

Ash Wednesday –

Join us on Wednesday, February 18, as we begin the holy season of Lent. Ash Wednesday Mass will be celebrated at 7:00 PM and will be bilingual (English & Spanish). All are welcome to come, receive ashes, and enter into this sacred time of prayer and repentance together.
