WILL I FOLLOW JESUS?

By Rev. Dr. Marcus R. Tinajero

St. Jude faithful and friends, today's Sunday Gospel from the 14th Chapter of Luke, is one that pushes back against the modern temptation to make faith convenient or comfortable. Jesus is not building a fan club; rather he is calling for committed followers. This text forces us to honestly assess our allegiance.

Do we view following Jesus as a transaction that gets us into heaven, or as a covenantal relationship that requires our complete loyalty? Likewise how do we see our role in our parish within our Polish National Catholic Church? Is our parish of St. Jude's a club for us, or is it a true place of spiritual healing and adoration for our Lord Jesus Christ.

While Jesus's words may feel heavy, they are also a testament to the supreme worth of the prize. The sacrifice of all is only worth it because of the boundless joy and eternal life that is gained in Christ. The cost is high, but the reward is priceless. What is your role? Have you contributed lately? What is the Lord saying and speaking to our hearts, minds and souls this weekend and in our spiritual journey?
