“AWAKEN YOUR HEART: THE BEGINNING OF ADVENT”

By Rev. Robert Grizzell

As we enter the holy season of Advent, the Church invites us to awaken our hearts to the nearness of Christ. In the Gospel for this First Sunday of Advent, Jesus reminds His disciples to “stay awake,” for we do not know the day the Lord will come. This call is not meant to frighten us but to stir within us a holy attentiveness—an awareness that God’s presence breaks into our lives when we least expect it. At St. Jude the Apostle PNCC, this invitation is especially meaningful as we continue to grow as a faith community rooted in hope, prayer, and readiness for God’s grace.

Advent is a season not of passive waiting but of active preparation. Just as we prepare our homes for Christmas, we are called to prepare our hearts to receive Christ more fully. The prophets longed for the coming of the Messiah, and now we relive that longing with renewed anticipation. Each candle on the Advent wreath, each hymn, each moment of prayer reminds us that Christ is both the One who has come and the One who promises to return in glory. In this sacred season, we recommit ourselves to walking in the light, shedding anything that dims God’s presence within us.

May these weeks of Advent be a time of renewal for our parish—a time of deeper faith, joyful expectation, and spiritual awakening. As we journey together, may St. Jude the Apostle, our patron of hope, intercede for us so that we may welcome Christ with hearts ready, humble, and alive with anticipation.

Reflection Questions

1. What spiritual “awakening” do I sense God inviting me to this Advent season?
2. What habits, distractions, or attitudes do I need to let go of so that I can be more attentive to Christ’s presence?
3. How can I help bring hope and light to our parish community during these weeks of preparation?

Bring a Friend to Church!

Faith grows stronger when it's shared! ✦ This week, we invite every member of our parish family to bring a friend, neighbor, or loved one to church. There's someone in your life who may be searching for hope, peace, or a sense of belonging—and your simple invitation could make all the difference.

At St. Jude the Apostle Polish National Catholic Church, we believe that God's love is for everyone. Our doors are open, our hearts are ready, and there's a place for all at the table of the Lord.

So don't come alone—invite someone to encounter God's presence, feel His love, and join our growing family of faith. Together, we can share the joy of Christ and make His light shine even brighter in our community.

Eucharistic Adoration Before the 8:00 AM Spanish Mass

All are warmly invited to spend time with our Lord in quiet prayer and adoration every Sunday before the 8:00 AM Spanish Mass. This time before the Blessed Sacrament is a beautiful opportunity to prepare our hearts, seek God's peace, and deepen our love for Jesus truly present in the Eucharist.

Whether you can stay for a few moments or the entire time, your presence makes a difference. Come and rest in the Lord, offer your intentions, and allow His grace to fill your week with strength and hope.

"Could you not watch with me for one hour?" — Matthew 26:40
