THE LESSONS

THE FIRST LESSON

Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-7

A reading from the book of Genesis.

The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. And the Lord God commanded the man, “You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die.”

Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God say, ‘You shall not eat from any tree in the garden?’” The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; but God said, ‘You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die.’” But the serpent said to the woman, “You will not die; for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.” So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate. Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE RESPONSE

Psalm 32 Beati quorum

Verses in bold are sung by the congregation

1 [Happy are they] whose transgressions are for/given, *
and whose sin is /put away!

2 Happy are they to whom the Lord im/putes no guilt, *
and in whose spirit there /is no guile!

3 While I held my tongue, my bones withered a/way, *
because of my groaning /all day long.

4 For your hand was heavy upon me day /and night; *
my moisture was dried up as in the /heat of summer.

5 Then I acknowledged my /sin to you, *
and did not con/ceal my guilt.

6 I said, "I will confess my transgressions /to the Lord." *
Then you forgave me the guilt /of my sin.

7 Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in time of trou/ble; *
when the great waters overflow, they /shall not reach them.

8 You are my hiding-place; you preserve me from /trouble; *
you surround me with shouts /of deliverance.

9 "I will instruct you and teach you in the way that /you should go; *
I will guide you /with my eye.

10 Do not be like horse or mule, which have no under/standing; *
who must be fitted with bit and bridle, or else they will not /stay near you."

11 Great are the tribulations of the /wicked; *
but mercy embraces those who trust /in the Lord.

12 Be glad, you righteous, and rejoice in /the Lord; *
shout for joy, all who are /true of heart.

THE EPISTLE

Romans 5:12-19

A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans:

As sin came into the world through one man, and death came through sin, and so death spread to all because all have sinned-- sin was indeed in the world before the law, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law. Yet death exercised dominion from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who is a type of the one who was to come.

But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died through the one man's trespass, much more surely have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for the many. And the free gift is not like the effect of the one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification. If, because of the one man's trespass, death exercised dominion through that one, much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness exercise dominion in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

Therefore just as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all, so one man's act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all. For just as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

©2002 Kevin Mayhew Ltd. Music by Colin Mawby. Common Worship. The Church of England.

Verses: Christ humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross. Therefore God has highly exalted him and given him the name that is above every name. Philippians 2:8-9

THE GOSPEL

Matthew 4:1-11

Clergy
People

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread." But he answered, "It is written,

'One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written,

'He will command his angels concerning you,'
and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'"

Jesus said to him, "Again it is written, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor; and he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” Jesus said to him, “Away with you, Satan! for it is written,
‘Worship the Lord your God,
and serve only him.’”

Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

Clergy The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Clint Moore III, Priest Associate

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

1. Jesus loves the little children,
All the children of the world.
Some are big and some are small.
Some are short and some are tall.
Jesus loves the little children of the world.

2. Jesus loves the little babies,
All the babies of the world.
Some will kick and some will coo.
Some will laugh and smile at you.
Jesus loves the little babies of the world.

3. Jesus loves the little children,
All the children of the world.
Stranger, friend, and neighbor too,
He loves them as He loves you.
Jesus loves the little children of the world.

4. Jesus loves the little children,
All the children of the world.
Some are big and some are small.
Some are short and some are tall.
Jesus loves the little children of the world.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer C

Officiant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Officiant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Officiant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.
By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.
By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Please kneel or be seated

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,
We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers and Mothers: God of Abraham and Sarah; Isaac and Rebecca; and Jacob, Leah and Rachel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For

2026 Appalachia Service Project Trip June 6 – June 13

Come join us on the St. Mark's Appalachia Service Project trip this summer! Open to youth (finishing 8th grade and older) and adults.

ASP helps residents of Appalachia live in warmer, safer, and drier homes.

All you need is a willingness to serve others. No special construction skills are needed. It's a fun trip where you serve others, learn about Appalachia's stunning beauty and unique culture, and learn something about yourself.

The cost for the last couple of years has been zero because we have raised enough funds with the flower sale, and we anticipate that it will be the same this year.

We don't have our exact location yet, but we have expressed a preference for Eastern Kentucky.

Contact John Zelman if you are interested or have questions: jzelman86@gmail.com or 630-854-0301.

ST. MARK'S ART EXHIBIT

St. Mark's Lenten Display: Stations of the Cross and The Lion of St. Mark

During the season of Lent our church displays the Stations of the Cross and The Lion of St. Mark by artist and St. Mark's longtime parishioner Richard Rush (1916-2001). Dick Rush was a prolific commercial artist who concentrated on sculpture in the later part of his career. He founded Richard Rush Studio, a model company where he created permanent displays for many clients, including the Shedd Aquarium; Chicago's Museum of Science and Industry (including work on the coal mine); and most notably, the dies from which the Presidential Seal is cast. Other work at St. Mark's by Dick Rush includes the wall mural of the life of Christ, found in the hallway outside the choir room.

The Stations of the Cross displayed throughout the nave of the church are made of a lightweight modeling material that resembles stone. They are hand colored and mounted on wood panels. The images are emotional, yet subtle. The consistency of the colors and the use of similar figure groupings enable the story of Christ's journey with the cross to build slowly and carefully. They bear more depth of understanding with repeated visits, as the Stations of the Cross spiritual practice is wont to do. The Stations begin at the front right of the church and proceed clockwise, ending at the pulpit.

The Lion of St. Mark appears at the rear right of the church nave. It too is made of lightweight modeling material, but is not stained. St Mark represented as a lion comes from the prophetic visions in the Book of Revelation—one of the four living creatures near the throne of the Almighty who are symbols of the four evangelists. In his sculpture of the winged lion, Dick Rush has incorporated crosses and other religious motifs along with significant dates in the founding and building of St. Mark’s Church in Glen Ellyn. It also includes an engraved panel listing the rectors of St. Mark’s parish from the first, Herbert. W. Prince in 1909, through the eighth, Raymond E. Cole, ending in 1996.

Please take time during this quiet season to visit the pieces that we are fortunate to keep as Richard Rush’s legacy.

A Guide to Observing a Holy Lent

I invite you in the name of the Church to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word. (Book of Common Prayer, p. 265).

Most of us have heard of giving up things like chocolate, caffeine, alcohol, etc. for Lent. While self-denial is a powerful practice, it can turn into a self-focused improvement goal. Lent is as much about the well-being and renewal of the community as it is about our individual development. Other forms of self-denial may include the giving of your time, talent and treasure to serve others.

The following are some ways to make the season of Lent a meaningful time of renewal, service and self-examination in preparation for Holy Week and Easter.

Daily Practices

- Follow the “Journey Through Lent 2026” path with its daily questions, Scripture passages and suggestions for service to others.
- Reflect on the “parable of the day” in the “Journey Through Lent with Jesus” booklet.

Prayer and Worship Opportunities

- Sunday Worship at 8:30 am, 10:30 am and 1 pm
- Morning Prayer at 8:30 am on Zoom on Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays (Zoom 483-170-780)
- Wednesday Noon Eucharists in the chapel on March 4, March 18 and April 1
- Ash Wednesday Ashes To Go 7 am to 7 pm and Eucharists at 12 pm & 7 pm on Wednesday, February 18
- Stations of the Cross on Friday, March 6 and Friday, March 27 at 6:00 pm in the sanctuary

Reading and Meditating on Scripture

- Participate in the Tuesday Bible study at 9 am on Zoom (483-170-780)
- Read the daily reflection in the “Day by Day” booklet.

Service to Others

- Food Pantry donations (place non-perishable items in the shopping cart in the library hallway)
- United Thank Offering – the blue boxes where you can put your loose change for a good cause.

- Volunteer at St. Mark's Saturday Meals to Go – 1st and 3rd Saturdays from 10 am to 12:30 pm – contact David Dornblaser at dornblaser@me.com.
- Sign up to be an usher, reader or acolyte for Sunday worship (sign-up sheet in narthex)
- See the Project Connect booklet for more ideas.

Questions? Please contact Fr. George at rector@stmarksglenellyn.org or visit the St. Mark's web site at www.stmarksglenellyn.org.

How to Support the Glen House Food Pantry

Call the Pantry at (630) 469-6988 if you need to arrange another drop off time. Any questions, please contact St. Mark's representative to the Food Pantry, Joyce Frawley, at (630) 476-5655.

The Appalachia Service Project (ASP) provides life-changing, short-term Christian mission trip opportunities – bringing youth, adult, and college volunteers into rural Central Appalachia to make homes warmer, safer, and drier for families in need. ASP believes that safe, affordable, sanitary homes are a basic human right. With those guiding principles, youth and adults are sent to locations in Appalachia to help repair homes of those who cannot afford to do it themselves.
