THE MISSION CHURCH
 FIND YOUR WHY

5 My soul, wait silently for God alone, For my expectation is from Him. 6 He only is my rock and my salvation; He is my defense; I shall not be moved. 7 In God is my salvation and my glory; The rock of my strength, And my refuge, is in God. 8 Trust in Him at all times, you people; Pour out your heart before Him; God is a refuge for us. Selah

Psalm 62:5-8

Set Free: How God Delivers, Develops, & Deploys His People, Sermon #7 Sermon Text: Exodus 5:1-23 "Faith In the Face of Pharaoh"

1. The _____ delivered. (Vs. 1-3)

2. The _____ declared. (Vs. 2, 4-5)

3. The _____ deepened. (Vs. 6-14)

4. The _____ displayed. (Vs. 15-21)

1. The _____ doubted. (Vs. 22-23)

Reflection Questions and Action Steps:

1. When obedience to God doesn't lead to immediate results or relief, how do I typically respond—and what does that reveal about the foundation of my faith?

Action Step: Start your day with surrender: Each morning, verbally commit to obeying God even when outcomes are unclear.

2. How do I respond when my faith is mocked or misunderstood by others—do I retreat, argue, or respond with grace and truth?

Action Step: Pray for boldness, not ease: Ask God to strengthen your courage to witness, even in uncomfortable settings.

3. What do I tend to focus on more—my present pain or God's promised deliverance—and how does that affect my outlook and witness?

Action Step: Anchor yourself in promises: Meditate daily on Psalm 62:5-8—post this truth where you'll see it often.
