Jesus Sought Me

Isaiah 6:1-8

Luke 5:1-11

1 Corinthians 1:26-31

In the first century, rabbis typically chose the best and the brightest to become an apprentice of the master. Shockingly, Jesus welcomed all who would come, and he chose those who were willing to “leave the nets” and follow him. In the first message of our Lenten series, Pastor David introduces us to a strong, rough-around-the-edges fisherman named Simon Peter, shares why Peter’s first encounter with Jesus is so significant, and invites us to ask ourselves: “When has Jesus sought me out?”

Wandering Heart current series

Like many of us, Peter has a wandering heart. His journey is not polished, or linear, or perfect, but he is always tethered to the love of God. When you look closely at Peter’s story, you find Jesus at each step along the way—offering him abundance, catching him when he begins to sink, challenging him when he stands in the way, washing his feet, predicting his betrayal, and offering him agapē love. The lyrics of the hymn “Come Thou Fount” come to mind. It’s as if Peter himself wrote this song. And so, for each step in Peter’s journey, we will sing our way through Lent-Easter, binding our wandering hearts to God. Join us as we come alongside Peter in figuring out faith.
