1 JOHN 4:1

In the final section of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus warns his followers to beware of false prophets and leaders who appear harmless but lead people off the narrow road that leads to life. He says they are like wolves in sheep's clothing. In today's message, Pastor David shares how we can tell the difference in good and bad leaders and influencers, and how we can be sure that we are doing the real work of character formation and not just busy doing religious stuff for God.

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT, PART 2 current series

Matthew 5-7 is known as the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus went up a mountain and a large crowd gathered to hear him preach a powerful message—proclaiming the gospel of the Kingdom and casting a vision of what it looks like to live in right relationship with God, our neighbors, and our enemies. These three chapters contain the core of Jesus' teachings and his most well-known sayings, including some of the most rigorous ethical demands in the Bible. Join us for Part 2 of this series (Jan 4-Feb 15), as we continue to explore the message and implications of Jesus' invitation to enter the narrow gate and follow him.
