Generosity and the True Reward

MATTHEW 6:1-4
1 CORINTHIANS 13:3
2 CORINTHIANS 9:7

In Matthew 6:1-18, Jesus wants us to consider what it looks like to live out a greater righteousness through three religious practices: giving, prayer, and fasting. And he begins by saying, “Be careful not to practice your righteousness in front of others to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.” In the final message of our series—The Sermon on the Mount, Part 1—Pastor David invites us into a “holy unawareness” and to be generous in the way of Jesus.

The Sermon on the Mount, Part 1 current series

Matthew 5-7 is known as the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus went up a mountain and a large crowd gathered to hear him preach a powerful message—proclaiming the gospel of the Kingdom and casting a vision of what it looks like to live in right relationship with God, our neighbors, and our enemies. These three chapters contain the core of Jesus’ teachings and his most well-known sayings, including some of the most rigorous ethical demands in the Bible. Join us for Part 1 of this series (Sept 7-Nov 9), as we explore the message and implications of Jesus’ invitation to enter the narrow gate and follow him.
