Sermon Title: The Peace of God for the People of God

Scripture Reading: Matthew 5:9; John 14:27; Philippians 4:4-9

Sermon Focus: Jesus said that he gives peace to his disciples that the world cannot give—the peace of God. The Apostle Paul said that this peace is a “fruit of the Spirit” that all followers of Christ can experience and express in their life. And he once wrote about this peace of God, which he said, “transcends all understanding,” from a prison cell! In The Peace of God for the People of God, Pastor David shares how we can know the peace of God for ourselves and then share that peace with an anxious world.

Thank you for going deeper in conversation with your small group in person or by video call. Use the following questions to help guide your small group discussion:

1. What are some of the ways you notice that people in our society tend to look for peace?
2. Read Philippians 4:4-9 together. What are God's promises in these verses? What do they reveal to us about God's heart and character?
3. Pastor David had us repeat aloud the phrase "I'm not God!" How does this help free us from anxiety?
4. What tends to make you anxious? How are you currently feeling worried, stressed, or fearful?
5. What is something practical you can do when you are anxious that will re-direct your gaze to Christ? (Consider what the Scripture says and what Pastor David shared in the message.)
