Our Focus on the Gospel

PHILIPPIANS 4:2-9

Amid trials and suffering, Paul exhorted the Philippian church to stay united, rejoice, and not be anxious. But how? Peace is something we all long for, but something we often struggle to attain. In the seventh message of our series, Pastor Melissa helps us see that it's when we are devoted to Christ and have a gospel perspective that we will truly experience peace, both within ourselves and in our world.

Series Focus: In his final days on earth, the Apostle Paul wrote a heartfelt letter to the church in Philippi from a prison cell in Rome. What does it look like to be faithful to Jesus in a world of competing allegiances? Is it possible for the church to remain calm, be at peace, and live with joy in a society that is seriously lacking it? And how do we live as "citizens of heaven" in a world seemingly going to hell? In this series, we will be encouraged to view all of life through the lens of the cross and to live out our faith together in humility, service, and love—all the while anticipating the Lord's return.
