Wisdom in Relationships

PSALM 37:1-40
JEREMIAH 29:13-14
MATTHEW 7:7-12
JAMES 1:5

In the next section of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus calls us to trust God as a good Father who invites us to ask, seek, and knock—to be intentional in asking God for wisdom in prayer as we seek to be in right relationship with others. And the more we depend upon his Spirit and trust in his character, provision, and justice, we are freed up to treat others the way we want to be treated. In today's message, Pastor David invites us to cultivate a dependent relationship with God that is built upon trust.

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT, PART 2 current series

Matthew 5-7 is known as the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus went up a mountain and a large crowd gathered to hear him preach a powerful message—proclaiming the gospel of the Kingdom and casting a vision of what it looks like to live in right relationship with God, our neighbors, and our enemies. These three chapters contain the core of Jesus' teachings and his most well-known sayings, including some of the most rigorous ethical demands in the Bible. Join us for Part 2 of this series (Jan 4-Feb 15), as we continue to explore the message and implications of Jesus' invitation to enter the narrow gate and follow him.
