Our Affections on Display

PSALM 7:17

ACTS 16:11-40

PHILIPPIANS 1:1-11

Paul's affections for Christ and the church in Philippi are apparent from the very beginning of his letter. But for us to understand his affections, we need to recall his journey and his close relationship with the Philippians. In the first message of our series, Pastor David invites us to reflect on the location and context of Paul's letter, and then encourages us to put our own affections for Christ and each other on display.

In his final days on earth, the Apostle Paul wrote a heartfelt letter to the church in Philippi from a prison cell in Rome. What does it look like to be faithful to Jesus in a world of competing allegiances? Is it possible for the church to remain calm, be at peace, and live with joy in a society that is seriously lacking it? And how do we live as "citizens of heaven" in a world seemingly going to hell? In this series, we will be encouraged to view all of life through the lens of the cross and to live out our faith together in humility, service, and love—all the while anticipating the Lord's return.
