The Posture of Trust: Praying with Authenticity

PSALM 13:1-6
MATTHEW 7:7-11
MARK 9:14-29

When facing challenges and uncertainties in life, prayer becomes an act of trust in God's unchanging character and in his good promises, especially when we struggle to believe and don't have all the answers. Therefore, our hope in prayer is not dependent upon a particular outcome, but rather in the loving God who hears our prayers. In the third message of our series, Pastor David invites us to experience prayer as an honest overflow of the heart, like a child talking to a loving parent.

Postures of the Heart current sermon series

The Bible reveals that there are postures of the heart that are naturally conducive to a healthy prayer life. We can see these emotional postures in various biblical characters. We can also see that these emotional postures are often accompanied by physical postures which help us embody how we're feeling and experiencing God. Join us for our January sermon series—Postures of the Heart: How Disciples Approach God in Prayer—as we explore what it looks like to engage with a holy and loving God through spiritual conversation and seek to make practical application to our walk with Jesus.
