SERMON granthamchurch.org/sermons

Here's My Heart

Psalm 51:11-13

John 21:1-19

1 Peter 2:9-10

The risen Jesus comes to Peter to restore him, not condemn him. Jesus doesn't ask Peter to prove himself, only to love him. And from that place of love, Jesus restores Peter and gives him a renewed calling. The one who failed the Lord is now the one commissioned to lead and care for the sheep. Because in the Kingdom of God, failure is never the end—it's often where real faith begins. In the final message of our series, Pastor David invites us to keep entrusting our wandering hearts to God.

Wandering Heart current series

Like many of us, Peter has a wandering heart. His journey is not polished, or linear, or perfect, but he is always tethered to the love of God. When you look closely at Peter's story, you find Jesus at each step along the way—offering him abundance, catching him when he begins to sink, challenging him when he stands in the way, washing his feet, predicting his betrayal, and offering him agapē love. The lyrics of the hymn "Come Thou Fount" come to mind. It's as if Peter himself wrote this song. And so, for each step in Peter's journey, we will sing our way through Lent-Easter, binding our wandering hearts to God. Join us as we come alongside Peter in figuring out faith.
