Our Life as Citizens

ACTS 16:35-40; 17:1-9
PHILIPPIANS 1:27-2:4
COLOSSIANS 4:5-6

For Christians, our relationship with Jesus is personal, but it's not private. We are disciples all the time, everywhere we go, in everything we do. Paul tells the Philippians that their civic conduct and political life should reflect their commitment to Jesus as they navigate a world full of competing allegiances. In the third message of our series, Pastor David invites us to apply our faith to the way we live as citizens.

Series Focus: In his final days on earth, the Apostle Paul wrote a heartfelt letter to the church in Philippi from a prison cell in Rome. What does it look like to be faithful to Jesus in a world of competing allegiances? Is it possible for the church to remain calm, be at peace, and live with joy in a society that is seriously lacking it? And how do we live as “citizens of heaven” in a world seemingly going to hell? In this series, we will be encouraged to view all of life through the lens of the cross and to live out our faith together in humility, service, and love—all the while anticipating the Lord’s return.
