Good morning, Church Family!

Storms! Here in Nebraska, sometimes we know that a storm is coming, and sometimes they just pop up out of nowhere. Like the disciples in Matthew 8, we can feel overwhelmed and lose peace and hope because of the circumstances around us. But, as Heath shared with us Sunday morning, “The amount of peace that I will experience in my storms will be directly proportional to the amount of trust I have in my God.” Let’s encourage each other to trust Him more and more!

Here are a few things going on this week:

- The deacons and elders spent time together in our joint meeting praising the Lord for answered prayer and praying for many needs within our church family.
- The deacons have organized a mowing crew for the summer, installed a new drum kit in the sanctuary, acquired a warming cabinet to replace one of the ovens in the kitchen, and, in addition to several other planned projects, have kept on top of maintenance and repair issues with several of the AC units in the building. Thank you, Deacons!
- With the school year winding down, the last weekly Axis meeting was held on Wednesday – Senior Night. Pastor Jamin planned to, “celebrate and pray over our 15 graduated Seniors, celebrate our leaders and leaving leaders, and go over plans for the summer.” One of the Seniors was baptized! Thank you, Pastor Jamin and Axis leaders!
- VBS is only a little over two weeks away. Visit the website to register your children.
- This Sunday we welcome Gary Burruss to our pulpit. He will be preaching a message titled, “The Ship” from Proverbs 30:18-19. Evening with the Guys

Last Call: Mark your calendars for the next Evening with the Guys on May 18th, 6:30pm at NCC. Signup sheet in the foyer. Be ready to show us your cornhole skills again! Men of all ages are welcome. The speaker will be Tom Rempel.

Blessings on your week!
