Good morning, Church Family!

Luke 4:18 and 19 reminds us about the heart of Christ. Good news for the poor (not just financial, but spirituality), release for those who are captive (the world is full of distractions), sight for the blind, and freedom for those who are oppressed. This is not only good news for ourselves, it is good news for the many souls around us!

Here are a few things going on this week:

- If you missed the slide show of all the VBS activity that was shown this last Sunday morning, visit the church's social media page to view it, or watch it again!
 - Thanks to the deacons for keeping the AC units maintained and serviced! Other projects being worked on are burning the brush pile, installing new toilets in the women's bathroom, ordering video monitors to be installed in the sanctuary on the right and left sides, and updating electrical so that one of the kitchen ranges can be replaced with a food warmer.
 - Be praying for the youth and leaders from NCC who are with Pastor Jamin at Maranatha Bible Camp for High School Camp this week.
 - Pastor Scott Mathis will begin a series in the book of 2 Peter this Sunday. Take a few minutes to prepare by reading 2 Peter.
- Summer Seminar

Ivan Kring will be hosting a Summer Seminar on a variety of End-Times related topics in the C-3 classroom at 10:30am each Sunday during June and July. Come check it out.

Blessings on your week!

Dustin, Dan S., Lonnie, and Dan J.
