

NCC Connection 08/20/2026

Good afternoon, Church Family!

This last Sunday we were given seven precious promises from 1st & 2nd Peter. Need a promise to hold on to? Here's the list to remind you:

1. Refined faith is more precious than gold. 1 Peter 1:6-7
2. Christ's blood is so precious, it pays our ransom. 1 Peter 1:18-19
3. Christ, the Living Stone, is precious in the sight of God. 1 Peter 2:4-5
4. Scripture reveals this precious cornerstone to whoever believes. 1 Peter 2:6
5. This Living Stone is precious to us who believe...and trips unbelievers. 1 Peter 2:7-8
6. Christian wives, living pure, reverent lives, are precious to God. 1 Peter 3: 1-4
7. Precious Promises allow us to escape from the world's corruption. 2 Peter 1:4

Here are a few things going on this week:

- Gravel has been delivered to the parking lot so repairs can be made.
- Continue to pray for the Search Committee. Dustin Beekman and Dan Jerred are joining the Search Committee to assist in sharing the load.
- As was announced in May, the Facilities Research & Recommendations Committee is in the final stages of being formed and beginning their work as a team.
- Pastor Scott Mathis will share a message this Sunday titled, "en courage" from Hebrews 3:12-13.

Fall Ministries

Fall ministries are kicking off! Visit the Events page on the NCC website. There is information for men's and women's kickoff events, a women's conference in Lincoln, and Anchor Crew kickoff and registration.

Men, visit the website also, for details related to the kickoff event at Oak Creek Sporting Club. Please sign up by the 22nd.

Visit the Life Groups page on the NCC website to get a taste of what getting connected to a Life Group is like. If you've never participated before, this is the perfect time to get plugged in.

Blessings on your week!

Dustin, Dan S., Lonnie, and Dan J.
