

NCC Connection 12/11/25

Good afternoon, Church Family.

Peace is the theme for the second Sunday in Advent. When we remind ourselves of the miraculous way in which Christ entered this world – through ordinary people – our Creator demonstrated His extraordinary power to bring peace and reconciliation to the world.

Here are a few things going on this week:

- Thanks to all who helped prepare for and host the Robotham funeral. Thanks for being the hands and feet of Christ in serving the Robotham family during their time of loss.
- A group of twenty-one people gathered last week to hear Eric Underwood share how our unique state government—a unicameral—functions, and how we, ordinary people, can be effective in influencing the culture for good. See the picture below.
- Again, it was a blessing to have additional children dedicated this past Sunday. See the picture below.
- Pastor Kerry will be preaching a message titled “Ordinary People for Extraordinary Work: Part 2” from the Gospel of Luke 1:26-38.

Blessings on your week!

Dustin, Dan S., Lonnie, and Dan J.
