

NCC Connection 04/23/2026

Good afternoon, Church Family!

In John chapter 3, Nicodemus approaches Jesus at night knowing that his teaching was from God because of the signs and miracles that Jesus had performed. This led to a dialog centered around being born again. Nicodemus struggled to see beyond his physical birth and the need to be spiritually born again. Nicodemus's final question to Jesus was, "How can these things be?" This conversation was so important that it is recorded in God's Word.

Here are a few things going on this week:

- Thirty ladies attended the recent Coffee & Friends gathering. Patty Dinkins and Linda Gersib spoke on intentional living. Check out the pictures below:
- Welcome to three new members at NCC that have completed the membership process: Katelyn Priefert and Mike & Cindy Beach.
- A big thank you to the deacons for installing changing tables in the women's bathroom in the A wing and in the men's and women's bathrooms in the C wing.
- For the first quarter of 2026, Sunday morning attendance averaged 181 and Sunday School averaged 106.
- This upcoming Sunday is Youth Sunday. Pastor Jamin will be sharing a message titled, "Are You a Proud Christian?" from Romans 1:16.
