

NCC Connection 11/13/25

Good afternoon, Church Family.

This last Sunday we were reminded of how unusual Jesus was – a servant and a king. He blended compassion to heal the sick—both physically and spiritually—with authoritative teaching. How can we serve Him today? By having that same compassion for the lost around us and proclaiming the truth found in the Word of God.

Here are a few things going on this week:

- The new Men's Bible Study kicked off this week with a great turnout.
- A big thank you to the deacons for updating the old security cameras and installing new ones in the C-wing of the building.
- The deacons and elders met this week for their monthly meetings. Our desire is to serve our church family, but we don't always see everything. If you have any concerns, please know we would welcome hearing from you.
- Ladies, don't miss the opportunity to make a connection at Coffee & Friends this Saturday morning. Visit the website for all the details.
- Pastor Kerry will be preaching from Deuteronomy 6:4-9 this upcoming Sunday on the importance of God's Word. Thank you to all who participated in the Missions Christmas gift! The total will be announced this Sunday.

We are nearly halfway through November, and Thanksgiving is right around the corner. Although Thanksgiving is a tradition, it can be easy to forget some of the details of how this holiday came to be. Copy and paste in your browser to read a short article about our Thanksgiving heritage. <https://www.gotquestions.org/thanksgiving-Christian.html>

Plan to attend our NCC Thanksgiving Dinner on Sunday November 23rd, after the Sunday School hour. Please sign up for the dinner in the foyer.

Blessings on your week!

Dustin, Dan S., Lonnie, and Dan J.