We are an open and affirming congregation that celebrates all people as sacred creations of a loving God. We embrace the fullness of human diversity - across orientations, identities, experiences, and backgrounds - and seek to follow Christ by offering love, compassion, and acceptance to all. In that spirit, we welcome everyone to participate fully in the life, leadership, and ministry of our church.

September's Theme:

Throughout September, we turn our attention to Stewarding God's Love, considering what it means to faithfully care for all that God has entrusted to us. Stewardship is about more than preserving what we have or simply meeting the needs of the church; it is about recognizing that our time, resources, gifts, and generosity can become part of what God is doing in the world. From a few loaves and fishes becoming enough for thousands, to the challenge of investing rather than burying what we have been given, we will explore a faith that trusts God enough to put our resources to work. On Commitment Sunday, Rev. Dr. Nadine Burton will help us consider The Cost of Compassion and the ways generosity can extend beyond the present moment into generations yet to come. Together, we will ask not simply what we have been given, but what God might make possible when we offer it faithfully.

†Call to Worship
One: God created the heavens and the earth.
Many: And gave them to us to use and enjoy.
One: God breathed life into each of us, and set us upon the earth.
Many: And God sent Jesus Christ to save us from the limitations of death.
One: Everything that fills our souls with gladness and light is a gift from the loving Creator.
All: We have been entrusted with stewarding God's riches. For all our blessings, let us lift our praises to God. Amen.

All: God, your changes touch our lives with mystery and hope. We come to this place today, ready to see your power working through us. Help us to be open to your Word, and to answer your call among us. And let us always remember the prayer Jesus taught us to pray, saying: Our Father/Creator...
