

ICEBREAKER

If you could meet one person in the Bible, other than Jesus, who would it be?

CONTEXT

Our current series discusses Sphere Sovereignty, stating that Christ is sovereign over all spheres of life. This week we are focused on The Church and what it means to be God's church in our world. Please refer to the questions for specific scripture references to help us understand this concept.

DISCUSS

- What are some practical ways we can make worship a lifestyle, rather than just an activity on Sundays?
- Are there any changes you can make in your daily life to better incorporate worship as a lifestyle?
- Considering the story of Abram in Genesis 12, how does God's faithfulness in keeping His promises encourage us today?
- What promises of God have you personally experienced or witnessed in your life, and how did that impact your faith?
- How can we as individual believers contribute to the responsibilities of the church - exaltation, edification, and evangelism?
- Identify one area (exaltation, edification, or evangelism) where you feel you can grow or contribute more. How can you work on that area?
- Read 1 Peter 5:1-4. What is the role of elders in the church, and why is it important to have godly leaders in place?

- How can you pray for and support your church's elders, to ensure they lead effectively and remain faithful to their responsibilities?
- Why is it crucial for Christians to speak truth courageously in times of deception and rebellion, and what does that look like in practical terms?
- Are there any situations in your life or community where you need to speak truth courageously? How can you approach those situations with love and wisdom?

PRAYER

- Pray for God's guidance and wisdom as we seek to apply the idea of recognizing His sovereignty in all areas of our lives.
- Ask God to help us embrace worship as a lifestyle, exalting and honoring Him in every aspect of our daily routines.
- Pray for the church's mission to proclaim the Gospel to all nations and peoples, so that we may have boldness and effectiveness in calling others to repentance and faith in Jesus.
- Ask God to raise up courageous men and women within our group, who will speak truth in love and actively engage in exalting God, edifying the body, and evangelizing the world
