

The Gospel Of John

ICEBREAKER

Do you currently serve at Crosspoint City? If yes, share a little about the area you serve in and why.

CONTEXT

Our passage includes the story of Jesus reinstating Peter after his denial, emphasizing that failure is not final and restoration is possible.

PASSAGE

John 21:15-25

DISCUSS

- How do you think Peter felt in the process of reinstatement? Have you ever felt that way and how did you overcome it through faith in Jesus?
- How can Christians respond to failure and find encouragement in Jesus' reinstatement of Peter after his denial?
- Why is it important to be patient in the process of reinstatement and healing after a setback?
- How can you demonstrate patience as you or someone you know is going through a difficult situation?
- What is the significance of Jesus asking Peter three times if he loves Him?
- In what ways do you express your love for Jesus in your daily life?

DISCUSS CONTINUED

- How can believers love Jesus' people and avoid the trap of comparison with others?
- Consider an example of how you can serve or support fellow believers while also focusing on your unique calling.
- What does it mean to glorify God in death and how can this be applied in our lives?
- What are some practical ways to surrender every area of your life to God's lordship and glorify Him daily?

PRAYER

- Ask God to help us embrace the truth that failure is not final and He desires to restore and reinstate us for service.
- Pray for patience and trust in the process of reinstatement, acknowledging that God is working in us to prepare us for His work.
- Ask God to help us love Him not out of pride, but in response to His initiative and grace, and to deepen our love for Him.
- Pray for the strength to express our love for Jesus through daily actions, especially by loving His people.

BLESS

Share a BLESS person update

The Gospel Of

John

ICEBREAKER

Do you currently serve at Crosspoint City? If yes, share a little about the area you serve in and why.

CONTEXT

Our passage includes the story of Jesus reinstating Peter after his denial, emphasizing that failure is not final and restoration is possible.

PASSAGE

John 21:15-25

DISCUSS

- How do you think Peter felt in the process of reinstatement? Have you ever felt that way and how did you overcome it through faith in Jesus?
- How can Christians respond to failure and find encouragement in Jesus' reinstatement of Peter after his denial?
- Why is it important to be patient in the process of reinstatement and healing after a setback?
- How can you demonstrate patience as you or someone you know is going through a difficult situation?
- What is the significance of Jesus asking Peter three times if he loves Him?
- In what ways do you express your love for Jesus in your daily life?

DISCUSS CONTINUED

- How can believers love Jesus' people and avoid the trap of comparison with others?
- Consider an example of how you can serve or support fellow believers while also focusing on your unique calling.
- What does it mean to glorify God in death and how can this be applied in our lives?
- What are some practical ways to surrender every area of your life to God's lordship and glorify Him daily?

PRAYER

- Ask God to help us embrace the truth that failure is not final and He desires to restore and reinstate us for service.
- Pray for patience and trust in the process of reinstatement, acknowledging that God is working in us to prepare us for His work.
- Ask God to help us love Him not out of pride, but in response to His initiative and grace, and to deepen our love for Him.
- Pray for the strength to express our love for Jesus through daily actions, especially by loving His people.

BLESS

Share a BLESS person update