

The Gospel Of John

ICEBREAKER

If you had to choose one object that best represents your approach to life, what would it be and why?

CONTEXT

In this passage, we see Jesus arrested and questioned in front of the high priest. We also see Peter questioned among the crowd.

PASSAGE

John 18:15-27

DISCUSS

- What stood out to you as we read the text? Why?
- Do you think you have an honest view of your capabilities apart from Christ? Why or why not?
- In what ways have you experienced your own weaknesses apart from Christ in your life?
- Do you struggle with speaking openly about your faith?
- How can we follow Jesus' example of speaking openly about our faith?
- What is one aspect of your faith that you would like to learn more about to help you share it confidently?
- What is the distinction between regret and genuine repentance and how does that impact our spiritual growth?

How will you apply this to your life?

- What has the Holy Spirit brought to mind for you to apply going forward?
- What are 2 practical steps you can take to share your faith with others this week?
- Can you recall a time in your life when genuine repentance led to positive change? How did it differ from mere regret?

How will you pass it on to someone?

- If someone asked you to explain why John 18:15-27 is in the Bible, what would you tell them? Why?
- How will you incorporate what you've learned into your interactions with others?

TAKE TIME TO PRAY

- Ask God to help us acknowledge our own limitations and capabilities apart from Christ and to be honest with ourselves about our potential to deny Him.
- Pray for the courage and conviction to speak openly about our faith, even in the face of potential opposition or persecution, and to actively share the Gospel with those we interact with daily.
- Seek God's strength and guidance in pursuing repentance when we fall short, understanding that repentance leads to restoration and freedom

The Gospel Of John

ICEBREAKER

If you had to choose one object that best represents your approach to life, what would it be and why?

CONTEXT

In this passage, we see Jesus arrested and questioned in front of the high priest. We also see Peter questioned among the crowd.

PASSAGE

John 18:15-27

DISCUSS

- What stood out to you as we read the text? Why?
- Do you think you have an honest view of your capabilities apart from Christ? Why or why not?
- In what ways have you experienced your own weaknesses apart from Christ in your life?
- Do you struggle with speaking openly about your faith?
- How can we follow Jesus' example of speaking openly about our faith?
- What is one aspect of your faith that you would like to learn more about to help you share it confidently?
- What is the distinction between regret and genuine repentance and how does that impact our spiritual growth?

How will you apply this to your life?

- What has the Holy Spirit brought to mind for you to apply going forward?
- What are 2 practical steps you can take to share your faith with others this week?
- Can you recall a time in your life when genuine repentance led to positive change? How did it differ from mere regret?

How will you pass it on to someone?

- If someone asked you to explain why John 18:15-27 is in the Bible, what would you tell them? Why?
- How will you incorporate what you've learned into your interactions with others?

TAKE TIME TO PRAY

- Ask God to help us acknowledge our own limitations and capabilities apart from Christ and to be honest with ourselves about our potential to deny Him.
- Pray for the courage and conviction to speak openly about our faith, even in the face of potential opposition or persecution, and to actively share the Gospel with those we interact with daily.
- Seek God's strength and guidance in pursuing repentance when we fall short, understanding that repentance leads to restoration and freedom