

Welcome to SUNDAY WORSHIP

May 17 | 11 AM

THANK YOU FOR JOINING US FOR WORSHIP TODAY!

All are invited to participate in Holy Communion at Trinity. Both bread and gluten-free wafers are offered. If needed, please request an individually wrapped gluten free wafer from your communion server. To include those not able to be here today, services are broadcast via livestream or digital recording.

Clapping is a form of appreciation and an expression of joy, which occasionally bubbles up during worship. We are aware of the fine line between worship and performance but are grateful for the occasional outburst of joy.

MMIWGR DAY.

May 5 was National Remembrance Day for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls, and Relatives (MMIWGR). Trinity is uplifting this concern at our worship services today. Thank you to those who are wearing something red to worship. Among many Indigenous people, red holds spiritual significance. Some believe red is a color that those who have died can see. By wearing red, we make ourselves visible to those who have been taken saying, "we see you; we remember you; we will not stop fighting for you." Add MMIWGR and their families to your prayers throughout May. Learn more about MMIWGR by listening to Indigenous voices. The ELCA offers resources on its website.
