

DRAW IT

In the Bible, God tells Jeremiah to watch a potter making a pot out of clay. As Jeremiah watches, he sees how the potter gently shapes the clay—and he thinks about how God helps shape our lives, too. Can you think of a person or a time in your life that helped shape who you are? Maybe it was someone who helped you, or a time when you learned something important. Draw a picture of that person or moment. Think about how God was with you then.

CONNECT the DOTS

What does Jesus say we must hold lightly and be willing to give up and share in order to follow him faithfully? Follow the path of letters, and each time you come to a capital letter, write that letter down at the bottom of the page. When you get to the end of the path, see the answer spelled out below.
