"FEAR AND LIGHT" – A COMMUNITY INVITATION

You are invited to share your creative response to that quiet promise. Where does light meet fear in your story?

Consider these prompts as you write or create:

Where do you see light shining in unexpected places?

What does "everlasting light" mean to you this year?

Share a reflection, poem, song, photo, or artwork to be used at Trinity throughout the season, and during the Intergenerational Christmas Program on Sunday, December 14.

Submit to Sarah Olson by Dec. 1

TRINITY LIBRARY NEWS

The move is complete! Please stop by to check out our new location in the lower level across from the River Room. We are working on doing a complete inventory of the collection, but you may check out books now! The process is described in the library and is unchanged. The signage is not complete at present, but it's a much smaller space so keep looking! We have a wonderful collection of contemporary selections both upstairs in the Abide Reader Shelf near Sanctuary as well as in the library. Welcome to all!
