PASTOR OF LIFELONG FAITH FORMATION
THE REV. PETER WESTON MILLER

Spaciousness and Graciousness

I have had lots of great memories flood back to me in these last few weeks as we have a big farewell and blessed retirement to Pastor Chris. Moments of connection and ministry milestones. Like paddling through time and the open waters and trails with so many sacred spots.

One moment that keeps coming back to me is sitting outside of the old Tin Bins coffee shop (which has gone through lots of transition over the years) with Pastor Chris following her sabbatical in the summer of 2022.

It was the first time we had reconnected and I was going through both our usual updates and pastoral care needs, as well as a bit of my take on the "State of the Church" heading into the fall program year.

She had been around the country and around the world visiting these contemplative thin/holy places, soaking in the wisdom of desert mystics and nuns and the caretakers of cathedrals.

At Trinity, we were trying to keep things rolling, inviting folks back into community, back to the Table after the long season of distancing, and the ache of rising political polarization and the impacts of the death of George Floyd moving through the justice system.

It wasn't an easy time to be the church or the Body of Christ in the St. Croix Valley, but folks were stepping up to lead, we were managing as best we could, being the church in ALL circumstances, and finding creative ways to invite others into life in the Gospel.

As we talked and I brain-dumped, I could viscerally feel the impact and recharge of her sabbatical, a sense of renewal and capacity to hold it all together, her hands and heart outstretched in this amazing gift of spaciousness and graciousness.

This is always the hope of true sabbath and the invitation of sabbatical but it still surprised me.

This is always how I experienced Pastor Chris, but it was also supercharged in that initial re-entry and full to the brim in standing in that liminal time, a moment of ending and new beginning, a cycle that repeats in our lives through so many seasons, forever in motion unfolding.

That spaciousness and graciousness is what I keep coming back to in a well of gratitude – moments in ministry together here at Trinity, both with Pastor Chris and our staff and our leadership with so many of you showing up for each other and showing up with God's spaciousness and graciousness.

God's spaciousness and graciousness holds the whole of what we are facing together as a community right now, both in immense gratitude and immense grief. God's spaciousness and graciousness in Christ flings wide outstretched arms that carries us, a well of support that we lean into, that we share.

In this transition time of graduations, retirement, moving equipment out to the Drive-in for worship, and planning to welcome our new Interim Pastor Jen Hackbarth (who is an amazing Interim Pastor!), my continued prayer for us is to draw and lean on God's spaciousness and graciousness.

Space for gratitude. Grace in our grief.

Space for shared memory. Grace in this new normal.

Space for tears of joy. Grace for different ideas and ways of being.

Space for brain and heart dumps. Grace for beginning again in Beloved relationship.

God's spaciousness and graciousness has the capacity to hold all of it, all of our hearts, all of who we are in the Body of Christ at Trinity.

In God's spaciousness and graciousness,

Pastor Peter

FRIENDS IN CHRIST,

I've been holding Trinity's members, friends and staff in prayer as you all said goodbye to Pastor Chris and started preparing for the interim time. May you experience the Spirit's presence during this time of transition!

Since early 2022 I've served as an interim pastor in the St. Paul Area Synod. Trinity will be my fifth interim position. I'm currently completing my time as Interim Pastor at St. Mark Lutheran in Circle Pines, where I've been serving for the past 16 months. Before that, I served as an associate interim pastor at Our Savior's in Circle Pines, Easter in Eagan and Gloria Dei in St. Paul. My earlier ministry includes 13 years as a solo pastor at Christ the King in White Bear Lake and 3 years at Trinity Lutheran in Boyd, MN.

My family lives in White Bear Lake, and my husband Tim is a 1st grade teacher at Stonebridge Elementary in Stillwater (some of you may remember when he worked at Trinity about ten years ago and helped with the youth programming!). Our son Ryan just finished his freshman year at Hamline and our daughter Rachel is finishing her freshman year at WBL High School. We also have a German Shepherd mix named Daisy. I love reading, cooking, theater, music, singing, and being near water.

Thank you for the opportunity to walk alongside Trinity as together we seek God's guidance for the future of the congregation and to build on your strong foundation. The interim time provides a unique opportunity to reflect and connect with one another while continuing to move forward in mission. I'm excited to join you on July 1 and learn together about what's next for Trinity.

Peace and Blessings,

*Interim Pastor
Jen Hackbarth*

"I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert." - Isaiah 43:19

Greetings Trinity!

IN GOD'S PERFECT TIME. The Bible is full of stories about leaders coming and going. Those comings and goings weren't easy. Similarly, the time between pastors can create discomfort. And yet – we continue to be richly blessed at Trinity with a great staff, meaningful worship and your continued commitment. Like many of you, I find great comfort in prayer. So I looked for a prayer for pastor transitions and I thought I would share this one with you.

God of Love, You are with us in every transition and change. As we enter into this new era with excitement and even some anxiety, we recall your deep compassion, presence, and abounding love. We thank you for the gifts, talents and skills with which you have blessed us. We thank you for the experiences that have brought us to this moment. We thank you for the work of others that gives breadth and depth to our own work. Be with us as we move forward, rejoicing with you and supporting one another. We ask this in your Holy Name. Amen.

Diggin' In

Join fellow gardeners to help keep Trinity looking beautiful! We typically meet Tuesdays at 9:00 AM, though times may vary with weather. RSVP or ask questions: Sandy Wendt at sjwendt46@gmail.com.

Dear Trinity community, here are your April Earth Keeper T.I.P.s (Thoughtfully. Intentionally. Purposefully.)

Climate Corner T.I.P.s

Our climate needs us more than ever. Every little act that takes care of the earth does make a difference! Remember, a lot of little things add up to big change.

Get Your Hands Dirty

Gardening is a great way to meditate, relax, talk with God and care for this amazing creation we have. You don't have to be a Master Gardener. Just head on over to one of the many local businesses in the Valley and pick up a few plants and flowers and go find a spot in your yard and plant them! You can consider a few vegetables also, but whatever you do, bang! you're a gardener! Annuals are a perfect way to start your gardening journey. Talk to the staff where you get your product and then go have some Me Time!

Use Clean Energy

If you are in need of a new mower or other yard equipment (such as leaf blowers, weed trimmers, chain saws), this is the perfect time to pick up an electric powered tool. They are light, no gas fumes, quiet and ready to use after a quick charge. There are a lot of options, so do your research and ask the staff. They will be happy to help you choose the right tool that fits your needs. Go electric and go home!

Get Outside

Take some time to enjoy our earth. Minnesota and Wisconsin summers are short and sweet. We know the humidity is coming in July and August, so take time to get outside in June. Ride your bike, take a walk, garden, visit a park, hit the Farmer's Markets, go spend a day at the beach, go fishing, canoeing, paddleboarding and/or kayaking. Any time outside is a time to reflect and simply be thankful for God's creation.

ABIDE READERS

Excited for summer reading! Our 2025-26 book list, focusing on marginalized people's stories of persistence, resistance, and hope, will be on the ABIDE shelves soon. These impactful books always spark powerful conversations. Contact Ann at wolff701@msn.com for details.

MMM ...

Is food your love language? Do you love to cook and share the gift of food? We are looking for more people to occasionally provide a home-cooked meal for Trinity's Make a Meal Ministry (MMM...).

This ministry provides meals to folks during times of grief or a health crisis, when a little extra help and support is needed in the form of nourishing food. Please contact Zanny Johnson at zjohnson@trinitylc.org to contribute and be on the list to make a meal or for more information on the Make a Meal Ministry (MMM!)

Stewardship in a Time of Transition: Laying a Foundation for the Future

Hello friends,

As Trinity walks through a season of leadership transition, we are reminded that stewardship is not just about managing resources—it's about faithfully caring for what God has entrusted to us. This includes our people, our mission, our ministry, and our future. Thanks to strong and faithful stewardship over the years, we are not entering the unknown with fear, but with trust. Though the future may be unknown, it is not uncertain—we trust in God's plan.

At Trinity, we know who we are. Our foundation is secure in Christ, and we have been shaped by shared values, committed leadership, and a congregation that consistently shows up with generosity of time, treasure, and talent. We've built more than just programs—we've cultivated a culture of service, worship, and community rooted in God's Word and responsive to God's call.

This foundation is what attracts strong, faithful leaders. When leaders see a congregation that is unified in purpose, generous in spirit, and actively engaged in its mission, they recognize the opportunity to join something meaningful and lasting. Stewardship is one of the clearest signs of a healthy church—when we steward well, we invite others to lead well.

And so, as we await what God has next, we do not pause. We press ahead. We lean in. We continue to serve, give, and participate with the same faithfulness that brought us here. A transition in leadership does not slow our momentum; it deepens our commitment. Trinity's ministry doesn't hinge on any one person—it is a shared calling, one we all carry together.

Let us be reminded: good stewardship is not a passive act. It is active, hopeful, and forward-looking. We give not just to maintain what we have, but to invest in what God is doing next. As we step forward together, we do so with confidence, knowing the One who calls us is faithful.

Noah Schumacher - Stewardship Team

Shobi's Table Visit

Eight Trinity friends shared a meal and connection at the pay-as-you-can Café and community at the corner of Rice and Larpenteur in St. Paul. Hosted by Deacon Kari, the director, mission developer, and head chef of this Synodically Authorized Outreach Ministry (SAOM) of the Saint Paul Area Synod (SPAS-ELCA), the café nourishes both body and soul.

Trinity attendees included Kay and Jerry Nelson, Sandy and Mark Weber, Randy Nelson and Randy Propp, and Sandy Wendt and Marie Liberda. Explore their website and consider joining your Trinity friends in a meal with the neighbors.

Volunteer at Shobi's Table

Shobi's Table is a ministry "where all are fed in body and soul." Does giving one morning a month appeal to you? Meals are prepared and cooked in the kitchen at Christ on Capitol Hill in St. Paul. If you are interested, respond to Sandy Wendt, sjwendt46@gmail.com. Details of the work and deciding what day is best will be determined by those interested.

Let's Go & Mission groups visit Shobi's Table

Feed the World Globe

Your generosity through the "Feed the World" globe has raised over $1900 since last October, purchasing Enfamil for Valley

Outreach families. A recent $250 Thrivent gift helped buy five containers. Thank you for caring!

Watch for the globe at the Drive-In this summer.

Refugee Fund

Spike Carlsen's deep passion for refugees, as shared in his May 4 Mission Minute (missed it? watch it online!) and Trinity Today article, calls us to action. As new refugees arrive in Minnesota, please consider offering your time or donating to Refugee Housing Minnesota: www.refugeehousingmn.org/donate.

Chosen Names Matter to God— Learning Together 101

Karen Gieseke (she/her)
Pride Justice Team Chair

Do you know the origin story of your name? Has your name ever changed since it was first given to you?

ELCA Pastor David L Hansen, a writer, consultant, and coach who helps congregations experience renewal, reflected on the impact of a person's name, following the election and naming of Pope Leo.

Pr. Hansen writes:

*Yesterday, everyone called him Robert.
Today everyone calls him Leo.*

*One day they called him Abram, the next Abraham. One day Simon, the next Peter.
One day Jacob, the next Israel.*

Chosen names are that easy. They deserve to be respected by us all.

Chosen names matter to God. They should also matter (and be respected by) the people who love God.

Names matter. To God - and God's people.

The past several years the Trinity Team I am blessed to chair has gone by the name RIC Team. We are aware that some people know-and many don't know-what RIC stands for: Reconciling In Christ. This name was given to the team based on the past. As the team's current purpose, focus, and future vision has shifted, we are giving this team a new name – the Pride Justice Team. This new name better describes who we are today, our purpose, and our identity. It may take some time for some of us to adjust and shift to the new name, but we are confident we-and all of you-can and will make the change-because it matters to us and to God and God's work.

Stories throughout history include someone's name being changed both formally and informally. Reasons include a cultural practice or ritual, immigration records, a marriage or divorce, change in vocation, poor spelling skills, or a personal recognition of a new identity, just to name a few.

It can be common practice among the LGBTQIA+ community that individuals choose a new name for the identity they now understand to be authentically them, rather than an identity prescribed for them early in their story. That Chosen Name Matters.

Faith communities, like Trinity, have opportunities to support individual's name changes through practicing inclusive hospitality, a curiosity and willingness to learn people's stories, and the rituals and ministry offered by its people. Use of nametags is one example to help all of us. At times, a more specialized experience may be needed.

An intentional example is The Naming Project (<https://www.thenamingproject.org/about/>) a 5-day summer camp for youth (a camp for adults is also available!), where the mission and goal is to “provide a safe and sacred space where youth of all sexual orientations and gender identities are named and claimed by a loving God; explore and share faith; experience healthy and life-giving community; reach out to others; and advocate for systemic change in church and society.”

What a gift to know you are named and claimed by God, and you have a community who affirms and loves you! Chosen names matter and lives are transformed, especially when God's presence and unconditional love is experienced as part of the naming!
