Dear Friends in Christ,

Transition Team Update

The Transition Team is working as quickly as we can (we've been meeting almost every week since October) and we are making great progress!

Thank you to those of you who filled out the congregational survey, participated in the adult forum on 12/7, attended a listening session, and met with Transition Team members. The Transition Team has been hard at work listening to your input about Trinity's strengths, where it can improve, and what your hopes are for Trinity's future. We so appreciate your thoughtful engagement in this process, as it helps us to learn what Trinity is looking for in its next pastoral leader.

The Transition Team's ultimate priority is to write the Ministry Site Profile for Trinity, a detailed document about the congregation that a pastoral candidate would use to discern their calling to interview for the pastoral position at Trinity. After the Ministry Site Profile is completed, the Trinity council will appoint the Call Committee, who can hit the ground running.

Our current task is to gather information from as many people connected to Trinity as possible through a congregational survey, forums, listening sessions, and individual conversations with the Transition Team. We're prioritizing listening to a variety of people—including (but not limited to) people of all ages, long-term and short-term members, people who are very connected to Trinity, people who haven't been as connected with Trinity in recent years, and people who are here in person as well as those who engage online.

This listening process serves two purposes: it gives the Transition Team current information from the congregation to include in the Ministry Site Profile, and it serves as a way for congregation members and friends to connect with one another, feel heard, and participate in the process. Once the new pastor is in place, the congregation will have ownership over the decision to call that pastor, and the congregation will feel connected and excited for new leadership.

In January, the Transition Team will also review current demographic information about Trinity's neighborhood and its connections with the community. After that is completed, the Transition Team will fill out the specifics of the Ministry Site Profile—what characteristics and gifts the next pastoral leader will need to possess to walk with Trinity into its future. Many of you have already shared your thoughts about this with us—thank you! As they move through the process, the Transition Team will decide if more detailed information needs to be gathered from the congregation, or if our initial listening sessions completed that task.

Since Trinity has come through a time of steady leadership over the past few years and has done a lot of wonderful work on its mission and vision, I estimate that the Transition Team's work will only affirm the direction that Trinity is already taking. We are not starting from square one, but from a great foundation. Thank you for your patience with the process and for sharing your hearts with us.

Hope and Bravery in 2026

Happy New Year and Merry Christmas, Friends!
I hope and pray that you have had a chance to savor the gift of Christmas again and the promise of God-with-us in Jesus. Born for you and me and for the world.

To soak into your heart the depth of this Good News of great joy.

Despite all that is going on in the world, the personal and public griefs that we bear, Christmas reminds us that EVERYONE is cherished and Beloved of God. No exceptions. Fear is not the way. We are wired to be known in our souls. God bravely invites and courageously risks a new way of peace in the human family through sacrificial incarnate love. It's beyond amazing.

God's love poured out in the Christ child.

Which he calls us to sing. Calls us to speak. Calls us to dance and build community that is shaped by hope and brave love.

This is true in 2026 as it was in 2025 (and always has been), even as we turn the page to this new calendar. It's the message that moves us and animates our Christian faith anew every day.

Everyone is Beloved of God is the message that I need to hear in the Gospel over and over again, even as we stand at a point of loud voices and violent attacks on our immigrant and refugee neighbors.

I am grateful for the Trinity community embodying the message of Christmas and so many of my siblings and colleagues and community members who are challenging this rhetoric in Minnesota, in our nation, and also hyper locally. I heard it expressed beautifully and tangibly in policy from Stillwater's Human Rights Commission. Fear is not our way forward. Love is. Clear and present love.

I also keep coming back to the brave words of Bishop Mariann Edga Budde (My Person of the Year) who told us almost a year ago as a Christian prophet in the Episcopal tradition:

"I ask you to have mercy"

"I ask you to have mercy"

Mercy is not weakness. It holds the power and mystery of God's hope and love. Mercy holds the power to connect us and what makes us human.

Mercy is Jesus enfleshed.

Bishop Budde reminded us too that courage and hope and bravery are contagious. When we see others dare to speak truth, extend kindness, stand up for the vulnerable, share their grief or pain or what they need, even simply taking the next faithful step, it gives us permission to do the same.

It is the greatest power that we hold both for ourselves and for building Beloved Community.

So be brave, friends. Even when it is complicated. Even when you might not think you have all the right words. Trust your heart. Trust this community. Trust God.

Together, our faith can be a powerful source of hope, resistance, and courage that shapes the year ahead.

In Christ's Hope and Bravery,

Peter Weston Miller

Giving Summary

"I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus." – 1 Cor 1:4

Happy New Year, Trinity! As we continue to celebrate this beautiful season of light, joy, and hope, I am filled with gratitude for your faithfulness and generosity throughout the year. In 2025, we shared moments of celebration, faced challenges, and experienced growth – always rooted in the love of Christ. Looking back, we can see countless ways God has blessed us and guided us through every season. Thank you for being part of this journey. Let's embrace this new year together with hearts full of faith, gratitude, and expectation for all that God will do in and through us!

FINANCE. This year, the traditional "summer slump" continued a bit into the Fall which did impact cash flow. Again, weekly giving/envelopes continue to become a far less common giving option. The online giving option continues to grow – as does annual gifting from an IRA or charitable fund – with most of those gifts arriving in January, February and March. To illustrate this – I am including the breakdown of 2025 pledges:

- Weekly: 35 pledges = $130,252.
- Monthly: 181 pledges = $523,973.
- Annually: 58 pledges = $309,542.
- Other: 12 pledges = $67,458.

2025/2026 FYTD INCOME VS EXPENSE.

- 2025/2026 YTD General Contributions through November were $257,788 (77.5% of Budget). 2025 YTD Giving was $244,155.
- 2025/2026 YTD Total Income through November – minus Missions– was $375,556 (91.6% of Budget/$49,431 from Endowment). 2025 YTD Income was $375,050.
- 2025/2026 YTD Expenses through November – minus Missions – were $432,627 (105% of budget). 2024 Expenses were $420,699.
- As of 12/1/25, the FSB Line of Credit balance was $0.

2026 STEWARDSHIP UPDATE. As of December 10, we have received 160 pledges totaling $734,784 – and 78 increased their pledge for an increase of $111,450. We are so grateful for your generosity!e

2025 COMPREHENSIVE CAMPAIGN UPDATE.

- Total Pledged: $1,853,458. Given to Date to Pledge: $1,683,220. (91% received). Total Contributed (all): $1,755,594.

MORTGAGE. As of 12/1/25 the Thrivent mortgage balance was $1,584,550.

2025 GIVING STATEMENTS. 2025 YTD Giving Statements will be going out via mail in the third week of January. Please review your statement carefully and if there are any discrepancies, please contact me by phone at the church office or via email at skinsman@trinitylc.org. Thank you!

Again, thank you for all you do to continue to make Trinity a healthy, vital, and viable community of faith! Your commitment allows Trinity to be a place where the Gospel is lived out daily – in worship, in outreach, and in the quiet acts of kindness that often go unseen.

FINANCIAL NOTES

Happy New Year! It is always great to continue sharing good news. It feels the mortgage continues to shrink at an amazing pace. Every single gift and contribution makes a difference. Our collective efforts have strengthened the church's financial foundation, ensuring a more secure and sustainable future for generations to come. The significant reduction in our mortgage, along with the resulting potential to allocate funds toward other meaningful ministries, is steadily becoming a reality!

Lifelong Faith Formation

Faith Lab is on J-term this January

This January, we're trying something new! Instead of offering our faith milestone events as separate, one-off gatherings, we're creating a short J-term pause within our regular Faith Lab schedule. By holding these experiences during a time already set aside for faith formation, we hope to better support family rhythms while giving these important moments their time to shine!

Faith milestones help children and families experience God's love in memorable, meaningful ways—part of our shared journey of learning, blessing, and belonging.

During J-term, we'll create sacred space for:

Start imagining the adventure now—summer at Camp Wapo is where faith, fun, and wonder meet!

WE ARE A GRATEFUL PEOPLE

2026 STEWARDSHIP UPDATE: "WE ARE A GRATEFUL PEOPLE."

I scream, you scream, we all scream for....pie. Who doesn't love pie? Apple, Pecan, Pumpkin, French Silk, Banana Cream, Key lime— what is your favorite?. No matter the flavor, pie is something we enjoy together. It's baked and sliced up so that everyone can share. Pie is something that brings people to the table and brings us together. Maybe that sort of pie is not your favorite? What about pi? 3.1415926535897932384626433832795028841971. This type of pi measures circles allowing us to find the area and circumference. It is constant, dependable, and never-ending.

If neither of those hit the mark, what about your stewardship pie? Each of us has a pie of our own that represents everything God has given us: our time, our talents, our treasures. Stewardship is just a matter of how we choose to divide up that pie. When we give a slice of our time to serve others, when we use our talents to lift someone's spirit, when we share our resources to support the ministry —we're offering a piece of our stewardship pie back to God. Just like a homemade pie, it often takes effort and great care, but must be shared. And just like mathematical pi, although challenging work at times, the results are infinite. For those who already have donated their time, talents, and treasures to the stewardship campaign, thank you. For those who have even considered, thank you. One small piece of your pie goes a long way towards the ministry we share. We are so grateful for your generosity! Let's move into the coming year with hearts full of thanks, ready to grow, give, and serve!

This Stewardship season, let's all offer our own slice with gratitude, so that together we can share a stewardship pie big enough to nourish our whole community. After all, who doesn't like pie?

Thank you for all you do for each other, We are a grateful people.

January 4. What Does Worship Mean to You?

With worship director, Clark Weyrauch and the Transition Team. Engaging worship is one of Trinity's Core values. As we go through our congregation's transition process it is important to hear from you, to learn what engaging worship means for you, and to imagine what may be possible and dreamed of for the Trinity Community and our neighbors. Clark will lead this important discussion as we discern our future direction in worship and its connections to calling a new lead pastor.

January 11. Lessons from the 1921 Tulsa Race Massacre—presented by Gary Cross, Trinity Racial Justice Ministry Team. We honor Martin Luther King Jr. this year on January 19 and will celebrate Black History Month in February. As part of the continued work of reconciliation Gary Cross will help us examine the infamous Tulsa race massacre in some detail and the Duluth lynchings. It has been common for the dominant group or race in a culture to use force to control others. At times that force has become violent, often out of control. We will look at how lynchings and sometimes race riots have been the result. Even though these events occurred a century ago, there are many lessons to be learned from them. It is important for us to recognize the seeds that led to events like Tulsa continue to exist today and what we must do about them.

January 18 & 25 Guilt, Shame, and Getting Free with Rev. Emmy Kegler.

A core belief of Christian faith is our need for salvation; in Lutheran terms, we might say "we are bound to sin and cannot free ourselves." Take a quick look at the headlines, our social media, or even in the mirror and we know we've fallen short of where we -- and God -- wish we were. But what happens if our guilt turns into an inescapable self-hatred? How do we keep our human desire to do better from telling ourselves we'll never be good enough for anything? Join renowned author, speaker, and pastor, Emmy Kegler, for two Sunday Forums on faith, guilt, shame, repentance, and repair. On January 18, we'll review theological, psychological, and sociological concepts of guilt and shame, from Augustine of Hippo to Brene Brown. On January 25, we'll explore prayers and practices that help keep us accountable without making us afraid to act. Attendance on 1/25 doesn't require attending 1/18 first.

LEAVE IT BETTER THAN YOU FOUND IT

Dear Trinity community,

Here are your January Earth Keeper T.I.P.s (Thoughtfully. Intentionally. Purposefully.)

Start 2026 by going on a Consumption Diet.

The start of the year is a great time to go on a consumption diet. Try a Low Spend January and give your mind and wallet a break from consumption. The only rule is to buy only what is truly necessary. For example, buy groceries, but don't dine out. Spend time with family and friends cooking meals instead. Save those leftovers for lunch at work or weekday dinners and also make sure to compost the food scraps.

Join the Washington County Food Scraps Program—it's FREE to Join!

Food scraps account for 24% of solid waste in landfills. Put them to good use and compost them! Go to washingtoncountymn.gov/2969/Food-Scraps-Collection and sign up. The bags come to you for free (if you need a container, that's free too! Just go pick one up). All you need to do is put your food scraps in the bags and place the bag in your garbage each week. It's THAT easy!

Community Charging at Trinity Lutheran Church (CC at TLC)—Check out the EV Charging Station Project.

We're driving sustainability and a Green Stillwater forward by installing the first public use EV chargers in downtown Stillwater—creating an oasis in downtown Stillwater's charging desert and inviting our community and visitors to power up with us!

- Cleaner air (zero harmful emissions)
- Increased foot traffic to downtown businesses, leading to increased economic growth for Stillwater's small business community
- Enhanced brand image for Stillwater
- A public station for your use when you get your EV!

Check out details of the project on TLC's website by going to the Earth Keepers page under the 'Get Involved' tab. Consider a donation to the project to help us continue our efforts of promoting a strong local economy and a cleaner and sustainable environment.

Karen Gieseke (she/her) Pride Justice Chair

We are a church that is deeply rooted – and always being made new. Congregational renewal is a biblical journey in which ELCA congregations deepen their understanding of the word of God, expand their practice of the word in the world, and are inspired to share with others the beauty of the word. <https://www.elca.org/our-work/congregations-and-synods/renewing-congregations>

Always being made new! A New Year is a great time to commit to learning something new. The action of turning the calendar page signifies something new is about to happen! Pulling up a whole new calendar is doubly exciting as both a new month and year begin!

The Pride Justice Team enthusiastically invites YOU to multiple NEW learning opportunities in the New Year and invites you to reserve these event dates on your 2026 calendar!

Grounding ourselves in the good news this Lent

Creative Resources for Lent-Easter

About this series

Lent was originally a season for new converts to learn and prepare for their baptism on Easter. During that time, they would study what was central to Christianity. As we crafted this series, we asked: what are the core, foundational concepts of Jesus' life and ministry? What makes each of these good news? Can we trust that the good news is truly good, even when it challenges us?

If we're being honest, we can easily distort or sanitize Jesus' teachings. Following Jesus leads to a richer, more expansive life, but it's not necessarily comfortable. We often describe Jesus' ministry as "radical" which comes from the Latin word "radicalis," meaning "root" or "ground."¹ Therefore, the good news should bring us back to our roots, back to what grounds us: loving our neighbor, caring for the vulnerable, pursuing justice and mercy, and resting in God's unending grace.

The good news is extravagant, untamed, illogical, and persistent. It is joyful—like fine wine saved for celebration. It grows like a mustard seed that flourishes rapidly into a tree to shelter the birds. It smells like expensive perfume poured from an alabaster jar and like crumbling bread passed endlessly through a hungry crowd. It sounds like children laughing and like stones dropped to the ground instead of violently thrown. It feels like feet washed with tender care. The good news is alive in the world.

We hope this series will provide fertile ground for conversation and worship, rooting our hearts and lives in the expansive goodness of God. This Lent, may the teachings of Jesus lead us forward. Let the good news ground us. And let that good news inspire us to take action in a world desperate to hear, see, and taste what is good.
