By Faith - Hebrews 11 Message Series

Hebrews 11 is often called the “Hall of Fame of Faith.” It is a chapter filled with names and stories of people who trusted God in different seasons. But it is not meant to give us spiritual heroes to admire. It shows us what it looks like to live by faith in the real world. Hebrews was written to a weary, pressured church tempted to drift, shrink back, or settle. These examples are not given so we put people on a pedestal, but so we learn how to trust God when His promises feel distant and the present feels uncertain. We live in a world that trains us to trust what we can see, measure, manage, verify, and feel. Hebrews 11 calls us to something deeper. Faith is not ignoring reality. It is learning to live beyond what we see by trusting what God has said.

WEEK 1 Background

We live in a world that trains us to trust what we can measure, control, or personally experience. But Hebrews 11 introduces a different kind of foundation — one where reality is not defined by what we currently see, but by the God who speaks and keeps His promises. Faith is not wishful thinking; it is building your life on what God says is true before you see the results.

WEEK 1 Reading

Hebrews 11:1-3, 6

Discipleship Questions

- What do we learn about God in this passage?
- What is God teaching the people in the passage?
- What is the Holy Spirit teaching you personally?
- What will you do with what God is teaching you?

WEEK 1 Questions

- Why do you think people naturally trust what they can see, measure, or control?
- In verses 2–3, how does the author connect faith to both creation and the lives of the people commended in Scripture?
- Verse 6 says that anyone who comes to God “must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who earnestly seek Him.” What do these two truths reveal about God’s character?
- According to verse 6, why is faith essential in a relationship with God?
- How does Hebrews 11 encourage perseverance even when God’s promises are not yet visible?
