

How do the 12 minor prophets point us to Christ?

Hosea – God pursues his unfaithful people for marriage, ultimately in Christ, the bridegroom of the church.

Joel - Christ is the Lord who will restore the years the locusts have eaten.

Amos – Christ is the prophetic Shepherd who gathers God's covenant people to himself.

Obadiah – There is a kingly rule on Zion in Christ.

Jonah - Christ is the ultimate prophet who cares for the earth's great cities.

Micah – God's justice was accomplished on our behalf at the cross of Christ so we can walk humbly, do justice, and love mercy.

Nahum – Christ is our comfort who has victory over our enemies.

Habakkuk – The righteous live by faith in Christ.

Zephaniah – Christ gathers church for restoration on the Day of the Lord & sings over them.

Haggai – Christ is the one we touch who makes us holy. We are living stones built into a temple where Christ is the chief cornerstone – he is our foundation.

Zechariah – Christ is salvation/high priest; he is both kingly governor, & priest.

Malachi – Christ is the refiner's fire, launderer's soap, purifier of priests, & desire of nations.
