MESSAGE DISCUSSION GUIDE

1. Think about a time when work gave you a knot in your stomach or left you discouraged. What was that season like, and how did it shape the way you approached your job?
2. In America today, we don't condone slavery. Neither does God. Yet in the first century Roman empire, those who were in a financial crisis chose indentured service to a wealthy household over becoming destitute. Paul addresses how followers of Jesus are to approach work. Read Ephesians 6:5–9.
  - a. Verses 5-8
    - i. How is an employee (slave) to treat their boss (master) and why?
    - ii. What does it look like when you obey them as if you are serving the Lord?
  - b. Verse 9
    - i. As a boss, how are you to treat your employees?
    - ii. What would it look like practically to treat your employees with humility, fairness, and compassion?
    - iii. God is master to both of you. How does that knowledge change your attitude toward your boss/employee, even when they are challenging to work with?
3. What if work filled you up instead of draining you because you were working for the Lord and you reported to Jesus. How would that change your whole perspective?
4. Whether you lead others or work under someone's authority, what specific step can you take to serve with a Christ-shaped heart this week?

Answers:
1. Jesus, boss
2. Sunday mornings
3. lead, serve
