

Volunteer Role Description

Role	Gen City Creative Ministry Team - Junior Volunteer member
Reports to	Gen City Creative Department Leader
Purpose	Gen City Creative Junior Volunteer Team members will develop practical, teamwork, leadership and other skills as they function within the Gen City Creative Team to facilitate the expression of worship at Generation City Church

Introduction

Gen City Creative is the worship ministry of Generation City Church. Creative Junior Volunteer members will serve within a team environment and will assist the Creative Team in the expression of worship as we gather together for our Sunday services and key events under the supervision and direction of our Creative Team adult leaders.

Key responsibilities

- To actively participate as part of the Creative Team to assist the expression of worship at Gen City Church
- Personal development of gifting and practice of all material required for Sunday services and special events
- Assist in specialised tasks, such as vocals, production management, set up and pack down and instrumental under the direction and supervision of adult leaders
- Other supervised tasks as authorised by Department Leader

Requirements

- Regular attendance at Gen City Church Sunday worship services
- Actively support the vision and mission of Gen City Church
- Year 7 to 17 years of age
- Completed Junior Volunteer Application form and parental consent
- Able to follow directions and safely perform approved tasks under supervision
- Willingness to follow the Gen City Youth Guidelines for Setting Culture
- Completion of Department induction including awareness of WHS responsibilities and Safe Ministry Awareness training as required
- Be open to direction and flexible to change as required by GCC Senior Leadership and Department Leaders
- Develop gifting, practice and know all material for a Sunday or special service, including attendance at rehearsals where required
- Be considerate of others, actively contributing to a safe and encouraging team environment

Additional requirements

- To function effectively, our Teams require a willingness and commitment to attend for rehearsals, training, set up and pack down etc and rely on a volunteer roster. As a Creative Team Junior volunteer, your commitment will include attendance for all or a combination of the following:
 - Sunday morning Service – 7:15am start until conclusion of the service, approximately 11:00am or as otherwise directed
 - Additional rehearsals for special events or services will be required from time to time and these will be advised in advance

Other Considerations

- To develop in your abilities, it is recommended that you attend Creative Team Nights
 - Tuesday night Team Night – Fortnightly – 7pm until 9:00pm
