Connecting the Dots

The Temple was central in the life of Israel. The Temple was the presence of God in the Holy of Holies in the midst of his people. The Temple was about the teaching of the Word of God. The Temple was about atonement as the people would bring their sacrifices for the priest to offer for their sins. On the Day of Atonement, the High Priest would enter the Holy of Holies and sprinkle the blood of the sacrifice on the Ark of the Covenant for atonement of the sins of the people of God. The Temple points to Jesus, the perfect presence of God. Jesus said to the Pharisees, “tear down this temple and I will raise it in three days,” speaking of his sin atoning death on the Cross and his glorious resurrection.
