

Ed & Sarah Trussell

TeachBeyond Latin America Region

Primary Ministry Focus:

Sarah is working for TeachBeyond Latin America Region remotely from Oregon. Her focus is supporting programs—both formal Christian schools all over Latin America and informal educational programs, like English institutes, camps, seminaries, etc. She is supporting school directors, team leaders and is on school boards. Ed is an associate helping with projects as they come up.

Prayer Requests:

- For strong Christian education all over Latin America. There is a desire for private education, so Christian schools have the opportunity to reach and serve many different types of families. Our desire is to see the Holy Spirit transform learners, educators, families and communities through quality education.
- Being "in tune" while working virtually. We are now located in Oregon and working remotely which has challenged our ability to provide the best support to the missionaries and programs around the region.
- Balancing home and ministry responsibilities. As our family grows, we are working to balance the increasing needs of our programs with our commitment to investing in our family.

After the service each Sunday, we will take time to eat, play, and just enjoy time together as a church family.
