

Missionary Update

Pray for our team, Kevin & Leilani Humble in Sulawesi, Indonesia.

The Humbles oversee WOW ministry in Sulawesi, Indonesia. They take tourists into remote villages to experience what life is like for these families. Visitors eat and sleep with a family and learn what village life is like. They are looking for people of peace that they can connect with.

Prayer requests: The Sulawesi team has a few days of rest before they start full-time follow-up with the families who they were able to connect with this past summer. Pray for those connections and they will be fruitful.

The head of the Indonesian sending organization team has been experiencing severe health issues and had to be hospitalized; he has been released yet continues to suffer. Pray for complete healing and a return to blessing others through his work.

The Humbles will return to the U.S. at the end of the month. They will be handling concerns and responsibilities in two countries; pray for wisdom, that they use their time and energy well and they remain focused on the things God wants them to do.
